

ST JAMES SCHOOL

The building you see here is the original St James School situated on what is now the car park.

Star of the Sea can be seen in the background. New school was built in the 1950's on the site opposite which was once a roughly grassed football oval.

The other photo shows the rear of the old school taken from the St James tennis court.

